AT THE CAREERS OFFICE

Complete the dialogue between Emily and the careers officer.

Careers officer:

Emily: My name is Emily Michaels.

Careers officer:

Emily: I live in East London.

Careers officer:

Emily: I think I want to have a job in which I can use my hands.

Careers officer:

Emily: I don't want to work in an office, I want to work in a workshop.

Careers officer:

Emily: I'm interested in working with wood.

Careers officer:

Emily: I enjoy football, and I often help my uncle in his workshop. He's a joiner.

Careers officer:

Emily: My favourite subject is technical drawing.

Careers officer: Perhaps you'd like to be a carpenter or a joiner! You can find a lot of information on the internet and here's a small brochure about jobs in the wood industry for you.

Emily: Thank you.

Careers officer: In two weeks. I look forward to seeing you.

Emily: Thank you.

Careers officer:

A TASTER COURSE

Tom Bailey has heard that a well-known restaurant is looking for an apprentice cook. He phones the restaurant and asks for a taster course.

Mr. Kubick: Good afternoon. This is Paul's inn. ?

Tom: Good afternoon. My name is Tom Bailey. I'd like to know if you are still looking for an apprentice cook.

Mr. Kubick: Oh yes,

Tom: Yes, I am. What requirements do I need?

Mr. Kubick: (good - maths)

Tom: I am good at maths, it's my favourite subject.

..... ?

Mr. Kubick: Yes, of course. You can start a taster course any time you want.

Tom:

Mr. Kubick: It takes three days.

Tom: Thank you very much for the information. Goodbye.

Mr. Kubick:
